The February UMM MEN'S FELLOWSHIP meeting was very well attended and the men and spouses were treated to a very interesting and informative program on the Henderson Settlement by Dick Mottinger and Ruth Pease. Dick has served as a Board Member of the Henderson Settlement, and he and Ruth work every year on mission projects at Henderson. Located in Frakes, KY, Henderson Settlement was established in 1925 and programs include: mission outreach, community outreach, agriculture, and a craft and thrift store. Dick also explained the extreme need and poverty in this area and how Henderson Settlement helps meet these needs. The UMM will have their next Smoked Chicken Dinner on March 18 and appreciate the support.
